Additional actions taken by Illinois Power Agency for minority outreach during fiscal year:

For FY16, the IPA did not seek or receive bids for professional, or related, services contracts. Existing IPA professional services contracts were awarded in prior fiscal years.

The IPA remains committed to conducting outreach to eligible minority owned, female owned, and persons with disabilities owned businesses for the Agency's procurement of energy-related consulting services, the purchase of goods and services, and other contracting needs. The IPA will seek such opportunities as needed.
